

“NEXT GENERATION” CONFERENCE SCHOLARSHIPS

Northlands Storytelling Conference

Lake Geneva, Wisconsin – April 27-29, 2012

Northlands Storytelling Network is offering “Next Generation” Conference Scholarships to young adults interested in using storytelling in their respective fields. Recipients of the scholarships will be paired with others at the conference that will act as guides and resources during the conference. Information about the conference may be found on the Northlands website (www.northlands.net)

Two scholarships will be awarded. Members of the Northlands Board and/or Scholarship Committee will judge applications and determine scholarship winners. Winners will be notified as soon as possible after March 22, 2012 and must register for the conference by April 22, 2012.

Who May Apply:

- Adults ages 18-35 (graduated or no longer attending high school), interested in using storytelling in their respective fields, i.e., education, psychology, museum educator, environmental educator, healing arts, law, religion, business, theatre, freelance storyteller, etc.

Winners Receive:

- Free conference registration
- Northlands membership for one year
- All meals Friday breakfast through Sunday breakfast

Additional Requirements

- Must provide own transportation to/from conference.
- Must secure their own lodging at the Grand Geneva (help for finding roommates is provided)
- Winners will be asked to evaluate the conference and make suggestions on ways to attract more young people to the conference.
