

2010 “NEXT GENERATION” CONFERENCE SCHOLARSHIPS
Northlands Storytelling Conference
Green Lake, Wisconsin – April 23-25, 2010

Northlands Storytelling Network is offering New Voices Conference Scholarships to young adults interested in using storytelling in their respective fields. Recipients of the scholarships will be paired with others at the conference that will act as guides and resources during the conference. Information about the conference may be found on the Northlands website (www.northlands.net)

Who May Apply:

- Adults ages 18-35 (graduated or no longer attending high school), interested in using storytelling in their respective fields, i.e., education, psychology, museum educator, environmental educator, healing arts, law, religion, business, theatre, freelance storyteller, etc.

Winners Receive:

- Free admission to conference
- Three nights shared lodging at Green Lake Conference Center
- Entrance to all concerts and fringes
- All meals Friday breakfast through Sunday breakfast

Additional Requirements

- Must provide own transportation to/from conference.
- Must be willing to share a room with 2-3 other scholarship recipients
- Winners must join Northlands for one year ($40 membership dues)
- Winners will be required to meet with a New Voices coordinator during breakfast on Saturday morning April 24 from 7:30-8:30 am
- Winners are encouraged to participate in the New Voices committee, which will evaluate the conference and advise the board on ways to attract more New Voices.

Four scholarships will be awarded. Members of the Northlands Board and/or Scholarship Committee will judge applications and determine scholarship winners. Winners will be notified as soon as possible after March 15, 2010 and must register for the conference by April 15, 2010.
